

Strike Zone Club Team Player Agreement

- I will keep my grades and behavior in good standing at school
- I am dedicated to attend Off Season workout sessions
- Don't strive for the minimum, strive for 100%
- I will hustle everywhere on the baseball field (no walking once I am out of the dugout)
Hustling out ground balls in the infield and pop flies in the outfield even if I think I am a sure out. I will also hustle in and out of the dugout.
- I will not talk back or argue with coaches, I will be respectful of the coaches
- I will encourage my teammates
- I will pick my teammates up when they make a mistake
- I will NEVER get down on or show that I am upset with a teammate
- I will not disrespect an umpire by showing that I am upset with a call that he/she has made. (I.e., Throw my hands up or shake my head)
- I will be respectful of other teams and players. I will tell them good job (tipping your cap) when they have made a great play.
- I will not hang my head when I make a mistake. I will get ready to make the next play
  - I will not hang my head with a loss or blame my teammates over a loss. I will look at what I could have done differently to help my team win and learn for the next game. Always room for self-improvement
- I will have fun and a good attitude, making the environment for the team exciting.
- I understand that I can be benched at any time for a poor attitude
